MR. BRAINWASH

Born 1966 as Thierry Guetta in Garges-lès-Gonesse near Paris. Lives in Los Angeles since 1981.

Gets connected with Banksy in 2006 through his cousin, the Street Artist Invader.

His Art Show Debut is 2008 in Los Angeles with the first Show “Life is Beautiful” which attracts more than 50,000 people.

In 2009 Madonna commissions Mr. Brainwash for the album cover “Celebration”.

2010 Mr. Brainwash gets famous with the Oscar nominated documentary film “Exit Through the Gift Shop” in which he follows the Street Art Legend Banksy.

In February 2010 the second show “Life Is Beautiful: Icons” opens in New York on 15,000 square feet (1,400 qm).

Several Shows in USA, Great Britain, Germany and France follow. In June 2016 Mr. Brainwash hosts his first exhibition in Korea titled “Life is Beautiful” at ARA Modern Art Museum.

FRANK FLUEGEL GALERIE has been representing the artist Mr. Brainwash in German-speaking countries since 2012. In the branch in Kitzbuehel/Austria, new works, all unique pieces on paper, are shown during the winter months since 2018.
